ESSEX THE CHALLENGER

Challenging you to know the best in Performance—Fineness—Comfort

Easy TO BUY For instance, the Coach $260 Down, and monthly Payments of $47.16
Your present car will probably cover the entire first payment.
The H. M. C. Purchase Plan Offers the lowest available finance terms on the balance.

Easy TO OWN On our own streets, here in Marion, Essex the Challenger, under competent observation, averaged 20 miles per gallon. The average owner in this city can expect 18 to 22 miles and upward. Commercial users operating large fleets of Essex cars say that service and maintenance costs, covering millions of miles of operation, are lowest of any car they ever tested.

With its open challenge that exceeds no car —with its 24% greater power and 70 mile an hour performance
—with its greater beauty, adult-size capacity, riding ease and economy —and with its brilliant chassis quality and fine, large bodies—Essex challenges, too, in proved VALUE. It offers a completeness of fine car equipment formerly identified only with costly cars, and available, when at all, only as "extras," at extra cost on cars of Essex price. Check these items as you buy. In Essex the Challenger—a complete, fine big "Six"—these items of course are standard. They cost not one cent extra.

They represent easily above one hundred visible dollars' additional value, and are another reason why the public is awarding to Essex the largest business it has ever known.

$695 AND UP - AT FACTORY

Standard Equipment includes: 4 hydraulic shock absorbers—electric gauge for gas and oil—radiator shutters—saddle lamps—windshield wiper—glass proof rear view mirror—electrolock controls on steering wheel—all bright parts chromium-plated.

tee to work out a program for the day was appointed at a meeting of Mizpah Encampment held last night. The order was founded in Baltimore, Md., on April 10, 1810. It is now known at the present time whether all the lodges in this district will observe for the service, or whether each will observe the day with individual ceremonies.

Announcement was made that the Harmony circle of past councilors would hold a meeting April 18 with Mrs. Blanche Knieble, Chicago at.

If I Were A Man
If I Were A Girl

WOULDN'T try to impress a girl with my wide acquaintance among celebrities. I wouldn't give her to understand that I was on intimate terms with practically everybody worth knowing. I wouldn't refer casually to the time I shook hands with Babe Ruth, or remark nonchalantly: "As I was saying to Luddy the other day."

I wouldn't turn a loving acquaintance with Jack Dempsey or Florenz Ziegfeld into a close friendship, and relate in detail how Jack had inquired with tears in his eyes last time I'd seen him: "Where's you been, old chap?" or how I'd had taken me around to his home for dinner and introduced me to his family.

I wouldn't make it a point to call all the movie actresses by their first names, and all the actors by their nicknames, with the implication that we were all little pals together.

A girl distrusts a man who's forever trying to impress her with his own importance by stressing his contacts with the great.

WOULDN'T try to be seductive. I wouldn't laugh around the office as if I were Greta Garbo's twin sister, or be forever trying to demonstrate to the boss that Vilma Banky must have learned to strut her stuff from me.

Heaving bosoms, languorous glances and sultry posturing may be all right in the movies, but in real life they're only a laugh. I'da with a twinkle in them will ensure me just as much as those that roll around and turn somersaults, expressing turbulent, lumberous emotion.

The girl with a graceful, natural stride can walk away with just as many masculine hearts as the girl who indulges in a swaying, serpentine gait. The girl who knows how to laugh with a man when he wants to play and to sympathize with him when he's feeling sorry for himself, gets a whole lot farther than the one who concentrates on being a red-hot mum.

When it comes to settling down for life, a man's not going to pick a seductive siren for his companion. Playing a John Gilbert to a Greta Garbo all the time would soon get pretty tiresome.

Thus, in time, shall his egotism fall from him and his self-assurance be laid low; and his love of conquest shall, peradventure, be transformed to love of the WOMAN.

Go to, a man that hath not enough of anything, whether it be wine or food or a woman's kisses, doth not desire any MORE. And much kissing leadeth not to love, but to satiety.

But a foolish virgin will not learn wisdom, until after the last kiss.

Losers in Class Contest
Act as Hosts at Dinner

MEMBERS of the Baker division of the Royal class of Trinity Baptist church hospitably entertained members of the class and the Applegett division at a chicken dinner last night in the church parlors. Two hundred and fifty enjoyed the dinner and program given as the result of a membership and attendance contest in the class, won by the Applegett side.

The class colors, purple and gold, were carried out in the table appointments, with tulips centering the tables. Mrs. A. G. Spring was in charge of devotions. A group of girls, each carrying a letter from the name, "Mother J. S. Rayl," gave a scripture reading beginning with the letters they were carrying. The Lord's Prayer closed the service.

Three pop songs sung to the tunes of popular song hits were given by Misses Emily Dale Wingett, Evelyn Harbaker, Bernita LeMasters, Norma Parker and Mildred McKeever.

Tableaux Presented

One of the most entertaining features of the program, which was in charge of Mrs. A. M. Gillan's group, with Mrs. Hayes Holland as chairman, was a tableau, "Portraits from the Family Album." Mrs. John Powell and Mrs. Ortha Johnson posed as "Father and Mother Higgenbotham." Roy Lovelace as a son, "Jeremiah Anderson," Mrs. T. C. Kennedy, "Elizabeth Josiah," Mrs. A. B. Ross, "Isabel Susan," with a final posing of the family group. The men and women posed in old-fashioned costumes, beside an old-fashioned whatnot, with varied sized tin-type on a piano.

At the close of this number, "Mother J. S. Rayl" posed as a mother of today. Mrs. A. L. Corwell and Mrs. Roy Redick, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. M. G. Kennedy, sang "Long, Long Ago" and "And Long Ago" and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mary LeMasters sang "When Grandma Was a Little Girl," accompanied at the piano by her sister, Mrs. Bernita LeMasters. Betty Jane Pickett gave a recitation, followed by a piano solo by Miss Gertrude Power.

Give Play

A short play, partly in costume, was given by Mrs. Hayes Holland, Mrs. Eldon Myers and Clayton Lee. Trick stunts were played on some of the men of the winning side.

During the dinner hour the Sunday school orchestra furnished music. The flor and Mrs. L. A. Wood were guests of the class.

Mrs. S. W. Rinehart and her age of officers were selected to represent for the coming class year. A refreshment meeting will be held May 14.

OPPOSITION SEEN IN BENDER'S FIGHT

Members of Both Houses Either Remain Silent or Hit Petition

SENTIMENTS VOICED
Cleveland and Dallas Sullivan To Meet in Debate
Thursday Noon

COLUMBUS, April 17.—The eighty-eighth general assembly of Ohio had passed into history today.
At a brief routine session yesterday, the solons sent 159 signed bills to the governor, upon which the chief executive must act within 10 days.
Probably more important than the session was the sentiment expressed over Senator George H. Bender's so-called "equal representation referendum." Members of both houses either announced their opposition or remained silent, which boded ill for the fight for reappointment of the state legislature being made by the Cleveland "war-horse."

Several committees were appointed yesterday. They included the committee to investigate the proposed acquisition by the state of the birthplace of Thomas A. Edison at Milan, O.

When the representatives sat down in their desks in the lower chamber yesterday, they were greeted by a letter from Dallas Sullivan, fellow member, who is leading the fight on the part of the rural districts against the proposed referendum which, according to Bender, seeks to break "the rural majority in the legislature."

Bender began his real fight last night when he began circulation of the petition for referendum after Attorney General Gilbert Bennett has approved it, as "fair and impartial."

Sullivan and Bender are to meet in a debate at Cleveland tomorrow at noon, and the shots that will be fired then will "be heard around the state."

Oppose Bender Rep. H. F. Ault, M. Gilead, who is serving his fourth term in the house, and who is one of the outstanding farm leaders in the legislature, declared he "was hard against" the Bender referendum.

R. D. Williamson, Xenia representative, declared that "Bender has started something that he never will get by with."

Urban's member in the lower house, William Guard, stated, "It would give the big cities absolute control of the legislature and as the city populations are largely foreign, this would amount to alien control."

Senator Paul M. Herbert, Columbus, who has always been a staunch supporter of Bender in the senate, said that while he feels that the referendum is "entirely right in principle," he is not sure that "sentiment is sufficiently crystallized to warrant it coming up for a vote at this time."

Darkens Prospects
That seemed to be the sentiment of all of the legislators and it darkened the prospects for passage of the Bender referendum.

Unless the governor recalls the eighty-eighth general assembly into "extraordinary session" to transact some specific business or to meet on emergency, the present legislature will never meet again.

SHOW CLEARS $800 FOR CHARITY FUND

Radio Star

Fully advised that they would see and hear but half of the "Jack and Gene" singing team, crowds packed the Grand theater on the last day of Gene's performance here yesterday and indicated their approval with hearty applause.

Gene's visit to the Grand theater

Monday and Tuesday netted the Kiwanis Charity fund approximately $800 profit. Kiwanians are well pleased with the results, in spite of the fact that Jack's voice "cracked" before the engagement and made him unable to sing some. Radio listeners will be pleased to hear that Jack will be "off duty" for about three weeks due to combination of tonsillitis and laryngitis.

Those attending the last performance last night saw what no other audience had ever seen. They saw "Lena," in the person of Jay Vaughn, a Marion Kiwanian, who caroled in fantastic attire, imitated Lena's pleasure to the last note.

Last night saw the largest and most enthusiastic crowds of the two days. Gene left Marion last night after the 11 o'clock performance for Sandusky, where he will appear today and Thursday.
